- All dance team members for 2017-18 season will be required to attend several community/charity appearances.
- All dance team members must have their own reliable transportation to attend games, rehearsals, and appearances.

PREP-CLASSES:

We will hold prep-classes on Monday, October 9th and Monday, October 11th. The prep-classes are intensive sessions that feature a mock audition. Come looking your best! Each participant is asked to come with full performance hair and make-up as well as a 2-piece form-fitting audition outfit (sneakers) to get individual feedback from the Attack Dancer liaison on appearance.

Prep-classes are NOT mandatory, BUT is an excellent way to get an idea of what audition day will be like. Don't forget to bring a towel, water bottle, work-out sneakers, and small snacks. Also, bring a list of questions you may have. If you would like to pre register for prep classes please go to <http://attackprepclass.com>.

What to Expect:

- Learn choreography at audition speed.
- Learn Attack Dancer style choreography from the Attack Dancers Assistant Director. You'll learn at an audition pace and receive critiques from Dancer Alumnae, and the Director.
- Receive individual feedback on your performance, audition outfit, and appearance from the entire management staff.
- Question & Answer session
